

TAILINGS AND MINE WASTE 2025

November 2-5, 2025 | Banff, AB, Canada | tailingsandminewaste.com

Sponsor & Exhibitor Opportunities

Highlight your brand, create connections, and support a vibrant, interactive forum for the tailings & mine waste community

The Tailings and Mine Waste (TMW) Conference series began in 1978 and is one of the most respected and established mining conferences in the world.

Join the University of Alberta Geotechnical Centre for TMW 2025 in beautiful Banff, AB, Canada.

Thank you to the Fairmont Banff Springs hotel for allowing the use of their photography.

Contribute to the future of tailings and mine waste management!

Be a part of Tailings and Mine Waste 2025

As a sponsor or exhibitor, you will:

- have an opportunity to build and enhance relationships with your target audience
- showcase your brand, products and services to the international tailings & mine waste community
- have access to potential job candidates at all stages of career development, from students to experienced professionals
- demonstrate your commitment to raising the state-of-practice and elevating state-of-the-art innovations

Who attends TMW?

Boost awareness of your brand and network with key members of the international tailings and mine waste community.

The conference is attended by:

- Mine waste managers
- Tailings management engineers
- Geotechnical engineers
- Company executives
- Regulators
- Researchers

Past TMW events were attended by delegates from USA, Canada, Brazil, Australia, South Africa, Peru, Turkey, Norway, Sweden, the Netherlands, and more!

Tailings and Mine Waste 2025 is hosted by the University of Alberta Geotechnical Centre

Proceeds from Tailings and Mine Waste 2025 allow the University of Alberta Geotechnical Centre to provide professional development opportunities for engineering students and tailings and mine waste professionals at all stages of their careers.
